CAN'T HELP ITSELF.
Heart disease never grows better of itself. Unless something is done to assist its recovery, it will surely lead to death through some chronic disorder which it has induced, or by sudden heart failure. The very best restorative known is Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, which strengthens the heart muscles and nerves. If first bottle fails to benefit, money back.

MUST SELECT FROM THESE

The time for filing nominations for county officers expired at midnight last night. The time for filing nominations for legislative office does not expire until ten days before the election. Assuming that all the legislative candidates so far nominated will file their nominations in time and thus qualify to go on the official ballot, the candidates to be voted for in this county, and the only candidates are the following arranged by party organization.

The Home Rulers. It will be observed, have failed to nominate for more than a part of the offices. The convention made no nomination for county clerk. In political circles it is assumed that this was done through the influence of D. Kalaokalani, Sr., so as not to injure the chances of D. Kalaokalani, Jr., the Republican nominee. Jesse Makainai who was nominated by the Home Rulers for county auditor, has failed to qualify, by filing nomination papers. This failure was not unexpected. He announced at a political meeting Monday night that he had not made up his mind to accept the nomination. It is understood that he is working for Brown's election.

The most sought after office in the county seems to be supervisor for Koolau. There are five candidates for this office. They are J. K. Paele, the present supervisor who failed to get a re nomination from the Home Rule party, and so is running independently, with good chance, so it is believed of being elected; S. W. Logan the Republican candidate against whom there is a serious revolt; Joseph M. Kealohe, the Home Rule candidate endorsed by the Democrats, David Watson, Independent, and R. W. Davis, Independent. Davis was a delegate to the Republican county convention, but he is an independent candidate for supervisor from Koolau.

INFALLIBLE SIGN.

"No," said the conscientious saloon-keeper, "I never sell a man any more liquor after he has had as much as is good for him."
"But how can you tell when he has had enough?" queried the cigar drummer.
"He has had his share," explained the man behind the white apron, "when he hands me a nickel for a ten-cent drink and insists that it is a quarter."
